ABOUT US ★

The California Museum—home of the California Hall of Fame—engages visitors about California's rich history, its diverse communities and its unique influence on the world of ideas, innovation, art and culture. Through interactive experiences, the Museum inspires visitors to make a mark on history.

A nonprofit that operates in partnership with the California Secretary of State, the Museum focuses on commonly overlooked stories, reflecting the state's diverse population and the cultural contributions of all Californians.

Each year, the Museum proudly welcomes 60,000 field trip visitors and hosts engaging public programs. Located one block from the State Capitol, the Museum is also a history-making venue for numerous special events.
