CALIFORNIA MUSEUM

ABOUT US ★

The California Museum—home of the California Hall of Fame—engages visitors about California's rich history, its diverse communities and its unique influence on the world of ideas, innovation, art and culture. Through interactive experiences, the Museum inspires visitors to make a mark on history.

A nonprofit that operates in partnership with the California Secretary of State, the Museum focuses on commonly overlooked stories, reflecting the state's diverse population and the cultural contributions of all Californians.

With an emphasis on civic engagement, exhibits and programs highlight leaders in the state's rich civil rights history as well as lesser-known individuals who have made significant contributions across a range of fields.
